January Trivia:

January's Flower of the Month is the Chinese Pink Carnation. Its meaning is "fascination, admiration, pure love, a mother's love". Pink carnations are said to have first appeared on Earth when a tear fell from the Virgin Mary's eye when Jesus Christ was carrying the cross. According to Christian legend, the flower was said to have sprung up from the Earth when her tear hit the ground, therefore the pink carnation represents a Mother's undying love.
